HAWAII SITUATION IS A CRITICAL ONE

JAPANESE AGGRESSION ASSUMING A SERIOUS ASPECT.

Asiatics Want the Island—Arbitration Hangs Fire—Question Has Still to Be Amicably Arranged—United States Should Take Immediate Action.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—The Times-Herald publishes the following from a special correspondent in Hawaii:

Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, Aug. 25.—The situation in Hawaii is one to cause serious apprehension.

If the men in the United States senate who cry "jingo" on the one hand and the men who fear the term "jingo" on the other were in Honolulu today, they would face a few cold facts that would give them a change of heart in less than twenty-four hours. It is here at close range that one's respect and admiration grow more and more for the government of Hawaii. It is a clean government and progressive in the best sense of the word. There is no higher civilization nor finer culture in any state of the union than right here on the Hawaiian Islands.

If the Hawaiian republic could sustain itself, it would be far better that it should go on an independent nation. But it cannot stand against the tremendous odds—not the royalist element, for the monarchy is a thing of the past—but the steady, firm, outreaching grasp of Japan.

It is not the question of annexation pure and simple, but back of all the diplomacy and sifted to the bottom it is the question of Anglo-Saxon or Asiatic sovereignty for the Hawaiian Islands.

The United States has two gunboats in the harbor of Honolulu, and indirectly assumes a protectorate over Hawaii. The time has come when there is but one consistent course. The United States should act with decision and promptness now, or recall her gunboats, cease forever the cry of "hands off" to the other nations, and never say another word about the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands.

From the Japanese point of view, the settlement of the immigration question, even to the advantage of Japan, would in no manner dispose of the protest against annexation. This is the position taken by the minister of Japan, Mr. Shimamura, though he expresses himself most guardedly on the subject, because of instructions from his government.

Young People's Alliance.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 6.—The third day of the sixth annual convention of the Young People's Alliance, Illinois conference branch of the Evangelical association, was very interesting. At 9:15 o'clock in the morning the delegates and visitors attended the Sunday school at the First Evangelical church. The Rev. H. J. Kickhoeffer, president of Northwestern college at Naperville, Ill., Henry W. Burns of Chicago and George Johnson spoke. The annual address to the convention was given by the Rev. G. Heinmiller of Cleveland, O. The Rev. George Johnson, financial agent of Northwestern college, Naperville, Ill., conducted a gospel service. Prof. S. J. Gamertsfelder of the Union Biblical institute gave an address.

Back to Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—The veterans and friends of the Seventy-third New York and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth New York regiments and the veteran firemen of New York spent all of Sunday on the battlefield. In the afternoon the veterans of the One Hundren and Twenty-fourth held an informal meeting at their monument at Devil's Den, which was opened with prayer by Rev. T. Brittain, who also made an address. Brief historical sketches of what the regiment did here in battle were given by Colonel Wygant, who commanded the regiment after Colonel Ellis was killed; Dr. Thompson, the regiment surgeon, Under Sheriff Howell, and other veterans of the regiment.

Foresters Meet at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 6.—The biennial convention of the subsidiary high court of the Ancient Order of Foresters began today. The most important business to come before the convention is a proposition to add an insurance feature to the order, and it is believed that will be done. It is also proposed to amend the constitution so as to make the dues uniform instead of graduated according to the ages of the members. The delegates represent seven or eight states.

Gold in South Sea.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 6.—A gold-hunting expedition, regarding which considerable secrecy was maintained, left the city on Friday for the South Sea islands, where, in the Solomon group, is said to lie almost inexhaustible mines of gold quartz. The schooner Sophia Sutherland, in charge of the South Sea Commercial Company, is the vessel which is to seek the treasure.

KILLED AT PLAY.

Two Children Dead and Four Hurt as the Result of an Explosion.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 6.—The boilers in a two-story brick building used as the electric light power house, water pumping station and general mill at Morton, Tazewell county, blew up Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, killing two people, seriously injured and another and slightly hurting others who were standing near the place. The dead are:

BEYER, TILLIE, aged 5 years, blown fifty feet and crushed by a heavy piece of iron.

BEYER, EMMA, aged 12, killed outright by flying timber.

Those seriously injured are:

Beyer, Albert, aged 4 years, head and back hurt: will die. Beyer, Frank, aged 14, head cut and leg injured. Moschel, Mrs. Louis, hit with flying bricks. White, Miss Cassie, struck with pieces of iron that crashed into a dwelling house.

The building was completely wrecked and pieces of the iron and timbers were blown hundreds of yards away, several houses in the vicinity being damaged. The top of the tower, 150 feet away, was blown off and iron thrust into the sides, dislodging bricks. The Beyer children were playing in a yard next to the building when the explosion occurred. They are children of the proprietors of the mill.

pensions, is greatly improved. His physicians expect that he will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Dynamite in Wheat Stacks.

Niles, Mich., Sept. 6.—Farmers throughout southwestern Michigan are looking for persons who have secreted sticks of dynamite in sheaves of wheat. Near Galesburg, while Louis Lefevre was thrashing, an explosion took place, which wrecked the separator, stacker and attachment, and the flames destroyed every bushel of wheat and the farm buildings. Several men at work on the thrasher were blown many feet away and severely injured. Saturday afternoon while Harmon Delong was thrashing wheat on George Townsend's farm, near Vandalia, a terrific explosion took place, blowing the separator to fragments. At least half a dozen of these explosions have occurred in different parts of the country, and the losses have been large. Farmers have hired detectives to investigate.

Yellow Fever on the Gulf.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 6.—State Health Officer Saunders, having reported the result of the examination of the fever which has been prevailing for some weeks at Ocean Springs, Miss., on the Bay of Biloxi or Gulf of Mexico, fifty-six miles from Mobile and eighty-four miles from New Orleans, the disease being pronounced yellow fever, the Mobile board of health has declared a rigid quarantine against Ocean Springs. All persons coming from that place or the neighborhood are to be detained at a station established outside the city limits.

Indian Insurgents Moving.

Pashawur, Sept. 6.—No fighting of importance has yet occurred between the government forces and the tribesmen who have taken part in the uprising. The enemy are concentrating at various points, and it is estimated that 17,000 of them are now on the Samana range, but they appear loth to attack the government troops. It is reported that the followers of Haddah Mullah in the Shabkadr district are deserting him and the Afridis are returning to Khyber pass. The British troops are massing.

New Turko-Russian Alliance.

London, Sept. 6.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard says he is credibly informed that the sultan has been in direct communication with the czar, and that the correspondence has resulted in the making of mutual arrangements by which the sultan agrees never to use his influence against Russia in central Asia, and the czar pledges himself to uphold Turkish rights in Europe.

Illinois Rolling Mills Burned.

Louisville, Ill., Sept. 6.—The Louisville roller mills were destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $5,000. The fire originated in the engine room.

WHITE PASS CLOSED TO ALL COMERS

PROSPECTORS MAKE EFFORTS TO OPEN THE TRAIL.

Was to Be Ready September 1—Latest News From Skaguay Says the Gold Hunters Again Will Undertake to Corduroy the Road Over the Alaska Mountains.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 6.—Letters written Aug. 28 and 29 were received Sunday by steamer Alki. They state that at the time they were written the trail over White Pass had been closed again, and 400 men had started out to repair it. Some of the worst bowlders had been removed with powder and all the bad holes were to be corduroyed. It was believed that by Sept. 1 the trail would be passable again, and that all who could endure hard work would get their horses and packs through to the lakes.

The letters confirm the story that the men who actually helped to fix the trail are to receive the first benefits of their labor. The 400 men who volunteered to work were to receive certificates that would entitle them to pass over the trail with their outfits before it was opened for general use.

The belief is growing on Puget Sound that at least 1,000 men who have left Tacoma, Seattle and San Francisco for St. Michael will be unable to ascend the Yukon river this fall. Capt. Treanor of the schooner J. M. Colman, recently from St. Michael, says it was known there when he sailed late in July that the steamers of the Alaska Commercial and North American Trading Company would start on their final trips up the Yukon not later than Aug. 20. In view of this fact he does not see how the Yukon boats leaving Puget Sound since Aug. 1 can possibly reach even Circle City this year. By the time they get started he thinks the Yukon will be frozen up. St. Michael had no accommodations for such a crowd and he predicts suffering this winter.

RICH POCKETS NEAR SONORA.

Ore Valued at $50,000 Taken Out of Mascot Mine—A New Field.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 6.—One of the richest pockets ever found in this state was taken out of the Mascot mine near Sonora last week. The strike was made during the working hours of the night shift and was so extensive as to necessitate the men working overtime to secure all the precious metal. From reliable information it is safe to say five pockets will approximate $50,000. The Mascot is on the "mother lode," and has been worked systematically for a long time. It is believed that this pocket is one of a series. Several days ago a strike was made at the Green mine in the same belt. On the 300-foot level a seam of gold which assays into the hundreds was encountered. This mine in the past proved a phenomenal producer, but it had been closed for a long period, reopening only recently.

News comes from Juneau that a better field than the Klondike has been discovered and this leads to the encouraging belief that there are still more and heavier treasure-laden sections in the north. Only four men so far know the exact location of the place. One has already gone to the spot, having left over the Taku pass two weeks ago. The others will go as soon as the spring opens.

The train was carrying excursionists from Dover and Foxcraft to Etna camp-meeting. The breaking of a flange derailed and overturned a car containing sixty-five passengers.

Methodist Episcopal Conference.

Springfield, O., Sept. 6.—At the morning session of the Cincinnati Methodist Episcopal conference Sunday Bishop Mallalieu preached to a great congregation in the High Street Methodist Episcopal church. So dense was the crowd that one man fainted. In the afternoon was held the ordination of elders, and C. L. Mackey of Mount Washington and C. B. Shann of Madison, N. J., were ordained. Dr. C. H. Payne of New York, formerly president of Ohio Wesleyan University, gave an address.

Killed in a Wreck.

Thomas of this place was instantly killed and Michael Seibb, a tramp, fatally injured. Several other tramps were also badly hurt. The wreck was caused by a broken frog.

DENOUNCE GOMPERS AS A FOE TO LABOR

REVOLT AGAINST AMERICAN FEDERATION PRESIDENT.

Called a Tool of Capital—United Labor League of Western Pennsylvania Takes Important Action—New Scheme for a Settlement of the Scale.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—The United Labor League of Western Pennsylvania, at a largely attended and exciting meeting Sunday night, gave expression to an open revolt against Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. It was all on account of expressions made by Gompers in reference to the recent convention of labor leaders in St. Louis. During the discussion on a proposition to take some action on the St. Louis platform, M. P. Carrick, president of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, referred to Gompers as a "plug-hatted, greasy tool of capital." He said, among other things:

"President Gompers, through interviews and otherwise, has proved himself no true friend of labor. Gompers has said that Debs and Sovereign are trying to disrupt trade unions. It is he that is doing his utmost to accomplish this. I want to say that it was not the trades unions that came to the assistance of the miners in their great fight, but the great mass of organized labor and citizens. Shop workers and people from all crafts came to the relief of the miners, and their cause would have been utterly lost had it depended on trades unions and such men as Gompers.

"It is time to call a halt on labor fakirs who sit in their offices and thank God that they are not like the poor workingmen of the country. Gompers is a disgrace to labor, and I believe it is high time to call down the would-be aristocrats of labor and kick them bodily out of the movement."

TALK OF NEW SCALE.

Novel Plan to Be Submitted to the Miners.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—Expectations are high in the coal mining circles over the probable resumption of work in the mines throughout the country. In anticipation of a settlement at Columbus Wednesday, another plan has been suggested by a representative of one of the largest operators, which will be agitated immediately after the men return to work. It will be formulated and submitted to the joint convention of operators and miners, which it is proposed to hold next December. In order to come to an understanding on all questions at issue wage scales are to be formulated for each mine. The scale is to provide for the rate to be paid for the entire year, and any special concessions that are to be made are to be agreed upon by the miners and the operators and so specified in the scale. The scale is to be an adjunct to the uniformity agreement which is expected to be in force. The proposition will be made by the operators, in the hope of putting all the safeguards possible against a probable strike. It is well known that there are no two mines in the entire district where the conditions are exactly alike. The uniformity agreement covers the general points, but even with it in existence some operators would be subjected to difficulties while others would have special advantages. The scale is to cover all these points, the primary object being to avert differences, create a more friendly feeling between the employers and employes and restore perfect harmony throughout the district.

MUST GET IN LINE.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 6.—The proposed basis of settlement of the miners' strike seems to have been accepted at Columbus without taking into consideration the attitude of the Indiana operators. It is looked upon here as an Ohio and Pittsburg district affair.

J. Smith Talley, president of the Indiana Bituminous Operators' Association, says Indiana will be governed by Illinois, and if the Indiana miners go to work at all before Illinois does it will be on a temporary agreement. "We cannot afford to get tied up in any agreement," said he, "that does not also bind our competitors across the border. We must be able to compete with Illinois or we will have no work for our miners."

Strikers Win in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 6.—The striking miners of the Des Moines district have practically won their stirke in all four mines. At a mass meeting held Saturday at Governor's Square reports were received indicating that all the large mines excepting the Carbondale, Gibson, Christy and Des Moines have agree to advance the scale to 85 cents. The men in the Gibson and Carbondale are still out. Those of the Des Moines and Christy are nearly all at work.

The I. O. O. F. building, across the street, occupied by a grocery store, was wrecked by an explosion in its basement. A crowd of men that had just rushed up to remove the stock to save it from the threatening flames across the street was mowed down and three were killed and twenty-three injured.

The fire department from this city hurried out to find the terrified people standing at a safe distance and letting the town burn up. In a little while the flames were extinglished.

The force of the explosions shocked the country for miles around. It was distinctly heard in this city. No one knows the cause, but it is supposed that a conduit had been leaking into the cellars of the two buildings.

Italy Is Cautious.

Homburg, Sept. 6.—Emperor William, at the banquet held in the Kurhaus Sunday evening, proposed a toast to King Humbert of Italy and praised the work of the triple alliance in the maintenance of peace. King Humbert responded in French, and his answer is considered to be so worded as to make it understood that, while Italy will adhere to the reibund, she does not mean to impair her relations with other powers; and it was evidently his view to emphasize this fact.

Big Cotton Crop in Egypt.

London, Sept. 6.—The Alexandria (Egypt) correspondent of the Times says that the Egyptian cotton crop just closed has yielded 5,900,000 cantars (about 584,390,000 pounds), double that of a decade ago, and over £1,000,000 in value beyond that of 1896. Accounts of the crop now beginning are entirely favorable and indicate a total yield of more than 6,000,000 cantars.

Ledochowski Not Moved.

BELOIT MARKET DAY AWAITED BY MANY

FARMERS TAKE A LIVELY INTEREST IN IT.

They Will Make Exhibits of Stock and Produce, and Will Compete For the Prizes That Are Offered—How The Arrangements Are Progressing.

Beloit, Sept. 6—[Special]—Beloit's second "market" will be held tomorrow, and our people are preparing to entertain an immense crowd. The farmers will quite generally make displays of stock, produce, etc., and a great deal of interest is being manifested over these exhibitions. As numerous stock buyers are on the ground, these market days offer an excellent opportunity to the farmer to dispose of his surplus stock at good prices and at the same time to lay in such supplies as they may need. A good list of prizes is offered for the various exhibits.

CHARNLEY $50,000 SHORT.

Through Bond and Redemption of Securities Losses Will Be Reduced.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Rev. Dr. Herrick Johnson and Rev. E. C. Ray, president and secretary of the Presbyterian board of aid for colleges and acadamies, held a conference yesterday to discuss the defalcation of Charles M. Charnley, the missing treasurer of the board. After comparing notes they announced they had no new light on the amount of the embezzlement or the whereabouts of Mr. Charnley. ¼

"It will take some time to straighten out the accounts," said Dr. Johnson, "because Mr. Charnley was treasurer of several funds, had the money deposited in the same bank and used the same signature for all funds. It is difficult to tell from the checks to what accounts they belong. I think the estimate of $50,000 will approximate the loss. The board believes the $25,000 bond is good, which if collected, will reduce the loss materially."

Seven Day Adventists.

Forrest, Ill., Sept. 6.—Sunday was the closing day of the Seven-day Adventist state conference. The attendance was large at all the different services. The Tract society of the denominaton elected as officers for the ensuing year the following: President and manager, G. A. Wheeler, Chicago; treasurer and secretary, C. S. Potts, Chicago; corresponding secretary, Walter Foreman, Chicago. After the conference business was finished the rest of the day was taken up in religious exercises.

Banker Crocker Fired On.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 6.—A shot was fired at William H. Crocker, president of the Crocker-Woolworth bank, Friday afternoon while he was on a train on his way to his country place at Burlinhame and a good deal of mystery surrounds the affair. The bullet came through the car window, smashing the pane and just missing the banker. It is believed by some that an attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Crocker, but who fired the shot and the animus of the assault are entirely shrouded in mystery.

Illinois Mob Tries Lynching.

Nashville, Ill., Sept. 6.—Samuel Watts, a coal miner from Belleville, has had a narrow escape from lynching, and the danger is not yet over. He assaulted Josie Kratz, the fourteen-year-old daughter of a well-to-do farmer of Dubois township, and she is reported to be in a critical condition, while hundreds of infuriated men are demanding that swift justice be meted out to him. He was brought to this city and placed in jail.

Poor Corn Crop in Kansas.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 6.—An official estimate of the corn crop of Kansas was issued Saturday by the state board of agriculture in the form of a compilation of estimates by farmers throughout the state. The average yield is placed at 20 bushels an acre, and the total crop 165,677,280 bushels, as against 221,000,000 bushels last year and 201,000,000 in 1895. The reports as a whole indicate that the crop is poor, not only as to yield, but as to weight and quality.

SUNDAY SERVICES IN LOCAL CHURCHES

RULING ELDERS ARE CHOSEN BY PRESBYTERIANS.

Rev. E. H. Pence on the Interpretation of the Scriptures—President Samuel Plantz, of Lawrence University, Fills Court Street Pulpit—Seven New Members Admitted.

The sermon at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning was by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Pence. His subject was, "The Reflected Glory of God," and he pointed out how we may reflect God's glory in the ordinance which God has instituted.

After the sermon, Dr. James Mills, Messrs. A. A. Jackson and J. M. Shackleton were ordained ruling elders.

Eight persons were received into full membership of the church, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered.

The subject of the evening sermon was, "How Shall We Study the Bible," and Mr. Pence spoke in part as follows:

We shall take our rules from the bible itself. There are three of them;

1. Search the scriptures.
2. Meditate upon them.
3. Compare scripture with scripture.

The scriptures are to be searched historically, doctrinally, and devotionally In them we find the revelation of God Himself—God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and we find providence, redemption and christian experience. The only way to get at the essence of this book is to meditate upon it. Men say that meditation in these latter days has become a lost art. It ought not to be so. We ought to have the ability of David, for instance, to sit down and study the marvelous judgment of God and all his counsels, and then sit down after he had studied, and write one of those marvelous psalms which have been the admiration of all ages, and to which we come almost for our personal confession. To illustrate the method of comparing scripture with scripture he started with Christ's statement in John 3:3, which teaches that to possess spiritual faculties a great change must be brought. and that references were brought to show that a new creature is the product of this change; that it is by God's divine will that a new birth is to be gotten; we are new creatures in Christ having been created in the image of God in the first place, we are born again, recreated in the image of Jesus Christ, that the active agent in creating this change is the Holy Spirit.

The regular church social which follows communion will be held in the church parlors Tuesday evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES.

Two Sermons By Rev. P. W. Longfellow, of Grand Forks, Dakota.

Rev. P. W. Longfellow of Grand Forks, Dakota, preached morning and evening in the Baptist church.

In the morning his text was in Deut. 32-11-12. He said, in substance:

These verses describe the love and wisdom of God in dealing with His people. This natural incident is made to show how his people should do.

Let us consider the mysterious dealings of God with his people. Many of the things that God gives us, we cannot understand. The eagle breaks up her nest when the young are old enough to fly. They do not understand it, so God sometimes breaks up our plans, though we may not understand it.

Dissapointment and sorrow may come, possibly our plan of life—it may be our home life, or our loved schemes may all be taken away. God takes them all away, although it is mysterious.

Again, see how the eagle by example, shows her young how to fly. So Christ came and by example, showed us how to live. He glorified a humble life. He showed us how to meet temptation, how to suffer for others. Would you be a chosen vessel? It is by the way of suffering. Christ taught us this in His own life.

Again see how the eagle holds up her young when they seem to be falling to destruction. The bible is full of examples of the upholding of God's power. Yes, it is also found in the personal experience of God's people. What is God's purpose in all this mysterious dealing? One thing is that He has something better for His people. He would give us a high ideal of life and he trains us accordingly. He would have us develop that faith which leads us to a higher, grander life. Not only fit for heaven, but fit for earth, fit to live among others. David did not understand God's dealings with him, but we can see how he was led. What will be our response when God stirs us up? Will we murmur and refuse to be led by God, or will we cheerfully trust our loving Father and trustingly do all that He sends to us.

For his evening sermon Mr. Longfellow took his text in Gal. 6 14. He said: Some people never become enthusiastic over anything. Paul was an enthusiastic man. Not one of gush, but one who enjoyed himself and showed it to others. He appreciated his blessings and especially the gift of Christ.

Now Paul did not mean the wooden cross upon which Christ died, but he thought of the symbolism of the cross. It symbolizes that we are sinners and that through the cross we may be made free from sin and its consequences. We have many more reasons to glory than did Paul.

See what Christianity has done for the world. Slavery was existing very largely. Personal worth and responsibillty was not considered very much then. Man's soul had been of very little value, but Christ discovered its worth to men and now men are realizing the true worth of men.

See what Christianity has done for women. It has placed her by the side of man where she ought to be.

See what Christianity has done for children. Instead of being neglected and reared in slavery and sin it has cared for them and is saving them to useful lives.

The cross of Christ is the only true source of cure for the great evils and troubles that confront us.

Any ruin, human soul, state or nation can alone be restored or saved by the cross of Christ.

Why not accept it and publish the good news to the world, lost and ruined by sin. The Y. P. S. C. E. was led by J. T. Fitchett, the subject was "Our Gifts From God and Our Gifts to God." All are cordially invited to attend the meetings of the association held in the Baptist church from Tuesday at 2 p. m. until Thursday afternoon.

SEVEN TAKEN INTO THE CHURCH

Admission of Members at the Congregational Church Sunday Morning.

At the Congregational church yesterday morning the pastor, Rev. Robert C. Denison, spoke on "The Life Giver," and said in part:

To a great many people religion seems to make life a narrow thing; religion seems to take away from the pleasure and sparkle and laughter of life, and compel us to live within the bounds of a restricted existence. But here we hear the voice of the great Christ saying, "I am come to bring to you a richer, deeper, more full and happy life." Just as you might think of the sun and the rain saying to the world, "I am come to give you life, I am come to pour light and moisture into all the world, that there may be more life in it." We may think, this morning, of some phrase of the promise of Christ. Christ came to men, saying, "I am here to give you life, and abundant life;" but first we must feel that we need abundant life. One might say, "but am I not already alive?" when Christ comes and offers life to us. He may answer yes, but there is another life for you, a life of purity and trust, of obedience and friendship to God, of daily following of Jesus. And now let us think of how Christ gives us that life. The only things that get life, that have life are the things that are closely connected with the source of life. So Christ gives men life by drawing them very close to the fountain head of all life. He brought them close to God. When a man holds his life close to God he keeps an open connection with the eternal, and God's life is abundant in his life. But it is not enough to possess, we must also utilize. Life is poor unless fruit comes from it and Christ brings life by stirring strength to its best uses.

But think for a moment of the word come. "I am come that they may have life." Christ has come, but except we welcome Him, except we realize His presence and do his will, He has not come for us. If we do open our lives to Him, if we do hasten to serve Him, His coming will bring to us a life abundant in joys, a life broad and true and high.

Seven persons were received into the church at the communion service, which followed the service.

MANY HEARD REV. DR. PLANTZ

President of Lawrence University Fills the Pulpit of Court Street Church.

Dr. Plantz, president of Lawrenee University occupied the pulpit at Court Street M. E. church yesterday. His topic in the morning was "The Dominion of Christ," as predicted by the old prophet Zacharia.

The speaker said that the belief was prevalent in some circles that the best part of these old prophecies have been fulfilled; that christianity has accomplished its mission, and is now on the ebb tide; that it no longer meets the demands of modern thought, and does not endure the pressure of scientific investigation.

In the judgment of the speaker the Queen Ann era at the close of the 17th century was perhaps the most noted era of skepticism and unbelief. At that time the colleges of this and other countries were filled with atheists and skeptics, and advance thought discarded generally the teachings of divine truth. Today these conditions are radically changed, and in all of the great institutions of learning the bible is reverenced, and its sublime truths most heartily endorsed.

What is true of the intellectual world is equally true of advance in moral sentiment.

Intemperance, Sabbath desecration, and national vices are yielding to the power and influence of the gospel of Christ.

That the world is growing better morally, socially and intellectually is apparent to every close observer.

Regarding the spiritual power and growth of christianity, the speaker said that the belief was prevalent in pessimistic circles that the church today is simply a club, or a social organization, devoid of spiritual power and religious life. The facts would bear out the statement, that never since the organization of the church, were found so many zealous, earnest intelligent workers, as are found in the church today.

'God still lives" and the kingdom of God shall yet become a universal kingdom as predicted by the old propeet. This expectation is not only reasonable but natural as well for the kingdom of Christ meets the demands of our humanity and satisfies the longings of the human heart as nothing

FAMOUS ROCK RIVER STORY

The Eruption of Bullheads That Enriched the Shores Years Ago.

Probably the best thing that ever came out of Rock river is the now classic bull-head story, a narrative so superior to its kind that it never loses its interest. After due description of the intense cold of the winter of 1860, the Chronicle relates:

"The fish, unable to breathe in the half-solid lake, of which the present marsh is a remnant, crowded up the live channel of the Rock river, making for the hole which the swift water left in the ice below the dam. Most of these fish were bullheads. It is six miles from the lake up to the dam, and the ice on the river was two feet thick; yet it rolled and tossed like the waves of the sea, so desperate was the struggle of the horny host beneath it.

"The first arrival of the run of fish at the open hole was marked by a geyser-like eruption of bullheads, fifty feet across and about twelve feet high. The pressure of the fish behind was simply enormous. Unable to get back into the water, they slid out on the ice, covering it in every direction to a depth varying from six inches to two feet. The air was filled with strange murmuring sound that could be heard for miles around. Old settlers say they never have heard such a sound since. Dreading some unknown calamity they hastened to the spot."

The account goes on to state that the soil of that entire region is still rich from the fertilizing agency of those bullheads, hauled away from the scene of the eruption in hundreds of wagon loads. Bullheads were fed to hogs, and for years afterwards it was impossible to find a piece of pork along Rock river at that point that didn't taste fishy, and many hogs came to show rudimentary gills behind the ears.

Not only do all the old settlers remember all the details, but their respective accounts of them agree perfectly. Further, a farmer up the river still owns an old horse named Santa Anna, who was rejuvenated by that winter's free indulgence in fish diet, and for six years afterward was trick horse in a circus.

CHAIN BIKES BACK NUMBERS

Traveling Men Come Along With Stories of the Bevel Gear.

Get rid of your old-style bicycles, all you Janesville wheelmen. Chainless bikes will be the thing next season. Reports are that after two years of experimental work and close consideration, the big cycle manufacturers have decided to make the chainless bevel geared bicycle the feature and novelty of next season. The manufacturers have been forced to take this action by the quality pattern that the bicycle has reached. The 1897 wheel differed from the 1896 wheel in but a few minor details, and was practically the same machine. Rumor now has it that within a few weeks a number of the largest manufacturers in the county will come out boldly with the announcement that the leader of their 1898 line will be the chainless wheel. Chainless wheels will be listed at $100. In addition to this the manufacturer will also offer to the public a cheaper wheel fitted with a chain which he will sell from $75 down to $50.

Janesville Boys Have Kept Up Their End In Oshkosh This Summer

Five Janeaville boys have helped to make the Oshkosh Colts the champion amateur base ball team of the state. The Colts have met the best amateur teams in the state and won ten out of fifteen games played. Since entering the field early in July, the team's career has been a brilliant one and while it has met with a few severe defeats, its long line of victories more than make up for these tumbles.

A BRIGHT ILLINOIS GIRL.

She Has Been Called to the Chair of Elocution at Alleghany College.

Miss Alice Huntington Spalding, an Evanston girl, has been elected instructor in elocution and physical culture at Alleghany college. Her remarkable record while a student of Cumnock School of Oratory, Northwestern university, gained her this important position. Miss Spalding is one of the foremost young women of Evanston. She is a member of the Country club and was prominent in college affairs. After completing a course in the Evanston high school she entered the school of oratory and was graduated last June. For her work while under Professor Cumnock she was given honors in English, the first ever conferred upon a student of the school. In local dramatic affairs she has figured prominently, having taken leading parts in several

ALL CRAZY OVER PEARLS

The Fever Runs Higher in Arkansas Than It Ever Did Here.

The pearl hunting fever was bad in Rock county but it never raged as it does in Arkansas. The St. Francis river from the mouth of the river to Jeffersonville is lined with white people and negroes, all engaged in unearthing and prying open the richly laden mussel shells. One young man brought a small bottle of pearls to Helena taken from Phillips bayou, a tributary of the St Francis. They are no darker in color than the ordinary pearls of commerce, but more handsomely shaped, and of good size. All of the chain of lakes in the hitherto impenetrable St. Francis river bottoms are full of those pearl-bearing mussels and if they should prove to be valuable the whole country will presently be engaged in the business, to the detriment of crop gathering. Planters expect to have difficulty in securing hands to pick cotton, on account of the pearl excitement.

HIGH GRADE VELVET, AXMINESTER AND BODY BRUSSELS CARPETS

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED ABOUT FIFTY SAMPLES OF

SAVOUNERY VELVET,
EXTRA WILTON VELVET,
AXMINESTER, AND BODY BRUSSELS CARPETS

.....With Borders to Match.....

Of the very choicest patterns of the new Fall styles. Our last Spring's experience of selling Carpets from samples is conclusive evidence to us that we can better serve our customers' interests by selling them high grade Carpets from samples, they thereby securing a selection from the newest patterns, and the variety three or four times as large as we could show were we obliged to buy the whole pieces. Then again, we do away with the remnants and odd pieces of border, and do not have to carry from season to season Carpets that are passe in style, that have to be sold at a great sacrifice. For the above reasons we can afford and will sell these high grade Carpets for less than one-half the profit that we would be obliged to ask did we carry the pieces in stock. Come in and let us show you these beautiful Carpets. We are sure we can please you both in pattern and price.

Our complete Fall line of all wool Ingrain Carpets now on sale at prices that will save you money.

A Little More Cost Brings Big Profits.

The addressing, folding, inclosing, sealing and stamping of five thousand circulars, with postage, will cost at least $65, whether the circular is good or bad. Notwithstanding this fixed charge, some strive to save a dollar or two on the cost of printing, although the goods advertised are to be judged by the character of the printing, just as a house is judged by the character of its salesmen. Good printing costs but little more, and that "little more" brings greater returns than any other part of the cost. Order your printing where good work is assured.

Creditors Pounce On the Norton Stock In Avon--A Hard Night's Ride.

Clerk T. W. Goldin, Officer Appleby and Attorney E. D. McGowan were routed out of bed at 1 o'clock this morning to prepare and serve attachment papers on a general store in Avon. Edwin Goldin of Rockford and Edwin Breed of Durand got them out after a hard night's drive.

Norton, the Durand banker, who has fled the country, "bled" Mr. Breed and Mr. Goldin about $600 worth. They learned by chance that the general store at Afton, run by Norton's brother, really belonged to the defaulting banker, and they started for Janesville at once, reaching here at 12:30. The minute the papers were made out they started for Afton, having a suspicion that their creditors were close behind them.

BAD GANG OF CROOKS LODGED IN CELLS

POLICE THINK THEY HAVE STOPPED BURGLARIES.

The Men Jailed Friday Night and Saturday Believed to Know About Many Jobs that Have Been Done in the Towns Around Here of Late.

It begins to look as if a gang of burglars who have infested Janesville and vicinity during the greater part of the spring and summer, have been run down and are now in a fair way to receive their deserts.

There is no doubt whatever as to the fact that numerous petty thefts and burglaries actual and attempted, have occurred in different parts of the county at various times during the past four or five months. In quite a number of instances there have been no arrests although in a number of others, important arrests have been made.

Suspicious characters were usually found congregated at some point in the county shortly after one of these acts of outlawery. This furnished a basis on which the officers could work and they have been very diligent, in a quiet way for some time, and now appear to have attained a certain degree of success. The first decided move in this direction was the arrest of John Arquette and the recovery of something like $77 worth of goods which were found in his house in a box under the bed.

Arquette maintains strongly and still insists that these goods were purchased by him in good faith and that he did not know the identity of the sellers.

There seems to be ground for belief that Arquette did purchase the goods as subsequent statements will show.

Tramps Found Up the River.

The day following the robbery at Milton at which the goods were stolen six tramps arrived in the local railroad yards on a late freight and at once started up the river. Chief Hogan and Officer Appleby made a trip up the river next day and located this gang of tramps, six in number. Among them were King and Hunt. They failed to discover any goods, however. As no evidence was had warranting an arrest, no action was at that time taken.

King and Hunt were arrested on last Friday as stated in Saturday's Gazette on charge of being suspicious characters and placed in jail. It is stated that they were immediately recognized from Arquette's description as the men who sold him the goods.

Another link in the chain of evidence was the immediate recognition when King and Hunt saw Smith and Johnson, the two men arrested on Saturday at the instance of F. H. Bidwell, who found them hanging around his residence.

Said to Be a Hard Lot.

The officers are inclined to give the quartette which they now have in limbo a shady record, and say that two of them have done time in Waupun and Joliet. It is quite certain that at least two of them will be confronted with a charge of robbing the St Paul freight car at Milton, from which the clothes found in Arquette's possession were taken.

One of the charges against Arquette is receiving stolen goods. In view of the recent arrests the charge of burglary is not as serious as the first named. Arquette's readiness to furnish the officers a description of the sellers of the goods as well may count in his favor when the case comes to trial.

THE SCHILLERS WELL LIKED

Singing, Dancing and Cinematographe Pictures Made Up the Bill.

Bliss Schiller Vandevilles pleased the audience at the Myers Grand, Saturday night. Florence Thropp was recalled several times after catchy songs, Frank Burt showed novel feats on the slack wire, and Ella Morris made one voice answer for six wooden dolls with great impartiality. The cinematographe pictures were new and effective, although views of Corbett sparring with his trainer in quarters was made to answer for "the sixth round of the Corbett-Fitszimmons fight." The pictures were received with marked appreciation. The company will appear tonight with a change of specialties, and twenty new pictures will be shown by the cinematographe. The prices of admission have been put down to 25, 35 and 50 cents, and they should be greeted by a full house.

BOUGHT WATCH--DIDN'T START

Patrick McNamara Says He Is in Jail for Another's Sin.

Patrick McNamara of Beloit, who is now in jail here for thirty days, charged with stealing a watch from a drunken companion, says he has a kick coming. He says Patrick Colton of Beloit, was at Rockton with him, and that he got so drunk that he had to be carried to a box car.

Somebody stole his watch and he found out the theft when he sobered up. He at once had McNamara arretted.

McNamara claimed that somebody else stole the watch and sold it to him for sixty cents and that he sold it to another of the party for $1.25. The latter part of his story was straight. He had sold the watch for $1.25 and it was recovered but the judge decided that the rest of his story was too thin and sent him up for thirty days.

MRS. SELLECK IN A RUNAWAY

Her Carriage Dashed to Pieces on the Miltimore Hill

Mrs. J. O. Selleck, living on Center avenue near the School for the Blind was hurt badly in a runaway on the Miltimore hill Sunday morning. Her horse took fright at a cow hitched beside the road and bolted down the long hill which leads to the east end of Monterey bridge. Half way down the hill the carriage struck an electric light pole and was smashed into kindling. Mrs. Selleck was thrown out headlong and lay motionless. She was half stunned and it was feared she had sustained internal injuries but examination showed that her most serious injury was a broken leg. She was bruised severely but today was resting comparatively easy.

In Memoriam.

Miss N. Maria Williams who was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery, on Saturday, Sept. 4, 1897 was for thirty years a social queen in the best society of Wisconsin. A charming personality, beautiful, witty and accomplished, she shone without an effort in the most distinguished circles. Many and brilliant were her social conquests and she was great of heart.

The good, the brave, the beautiful
How dreamless is their sleep.
The record fair that memory keeps of
All thy kindness still outlive they form.

ASKED TO BE JAILED FOR ROBBING HOUSE

PETER ST. JOHN REPENTS OF HIS CRIME.

He Has Been In Waupun, But is Not So Hardened That He Can Sleep When the Memory of Transgression is Still Fresh in His Mind.

At his own request Peter St. John was placed behind the bars Sunday evening charged with burglary.

St. John says he with the aid of another entered and robbed the Eager residence at Evansville on the night of Thursday, August 26.

Sheriff Acheson places full reliance in the prisoner's story and a thorough investigation of the affair will be made.

Worry Made Him Confess

St. John who lives near Evansville is a hard case having served one term in Waupun. Constant worrying on the part of the prisoner over the impossibility of living a respectable life resulted in him giving himself up.

As Sheriff Acheson and Turnkey Brown were sitting on the front porch of the jail residence Sunday evening enjoying a quiet smoke, up walked St. John. "Sheriff, I have come to give myself up," he remarked. "I wish that you would lock me up on the charge of burglary."

Sheriff Thought It a Pipe Story

The sheriff paid no attention to the man at first, but finally recognized in him a former prisoner. He then searched St. John and put him in a cell.

The prisoner talked freely and seemed relieved when the iron doors closed on him.

Couldn't Sleep For Remorse

"I haven't been able to sleep since the Evansville job was done," he said. "After I got out of Waupun before I determined to reform but everybody was against me. I couldn't hold a job and I broke into Eager's house because it was the only way I could raise money. We didn't have a revolver that night. My partner had a piece of lead pipe. He did most of the talking."

When St. John was arrested before it was by Officer Wallace Cochrane for passing a forged check on S. Rosenfeld the clothier.

James Simpson.

James Simpson died at his home on Prairie avenue, this morning at 6:30 o'clock. He attended church, yesterday, and was apparently in good health; but last evening he was taken with cholera morbus, and grew steadily worse until the end. The cholera morbus was brought on, apparently, by drinking a glass of cold water soon after returning from church, and while overheated. He was taken ill inside of an hour, suffering with cramps and chills.

During one of these attacks he fell to the floor cutting a deep gash near one of his eyes.

Mr. Simpson was an old resident, having lived in the county forty years. At one time he owned a farm in La Prairie, but the past two years he has lived in the city. A devoted wife survives him.

Slow in Starting Race

The programme of games began at the grounds as soon as the crowd landed. The road race from town, however was slow in starting. There was a dispute as to whether Percy Munger could ride in a sanctioned race, on account of winning a money prize at the grocer's picnic. The race was started about 2:30 W. A. Sprague made the trip in 15 minutes flat and won first money. Munger was a wheel length behind and Smith was a good third.

FASHIONABLE ACCESSORIES.

Veils With Large Dots and Small—Green Woolen Costume.

Although ruches, plaitings, ruffles and other full and fluffy trimmings are and will continue to be used for the decoration of wraps, gowns are preferably adorned in a flat style, showing a decided opposition. Galloon, soutache, flat embroidery, bands and applications are the ornamentation preferred for autumn and winter costumes.

White tulle and mousseline de soie have enjoyed and are enjoying a vogue quite incommensurate with their durability and usefulness. Nothing is more delicate and fragile, yet they are used in immense quantity for millinery and the trimming of gowns. For full vests and plastrons, to be worn with boleros and open jackets they seem to be preferred to anything else, sometimes being placed over white, sometimes over color. The tulle is often seen with dots in high relief, and crosswise bands of very narrow black or colored velvet form a favorite decoration.

Veils are exceedingly varied this year, both in color and texture. Some have very large dots scattered at wide intervals; others are sprinkled with little spots quite close together. Then there are veils of heavy net, with applications of lace, both black and white, and other veils so thin as to be almost invisible. Black and white ones predominate, as ever, the colored ones being only used with special costumes, which they match.

Today's sketch shows a costume of green woolen goods. The side of the tablier is cut in scallops, under which is laid a fold of white cloth trimmed with black cords, and is fastened down with gold buttons. The close bodice has a very short, scalloped basque finished with a fold of white cloth like that on the skirt, and the coquille revers, lined with white, are completed in the same way. The bodice opens over a shirred vest of pink surah and is trimmed with gold buttons. The sleeves have scalloped epaulets finished with white cloth and are trimmed to match at the wrist. The belt is of black satin.

MORNING COSTUMES.

Many Pretty Jackets—Watteau Backs For House Gowns.

Pretty morning gowns for the house are made in two pieces. The skirt is unlined and touches the ground all around. The bodice is in the form of an empire jacket or loose sack. Often it is accordion plaited. The costume may be rendered elegant by a yoke of lace and by ribbon bows. Cashmere challie and nun's veiling are suitable materials. Very attractive morning jackets are likewise made with a fitted back and a loose front, with revers, showing a full vest. These jackets are of cotton, woolen or silk goods and are susceptible of great elaboration by the use of jabots of lace or embroidery and applications of guipure.

The watteau back for wrappers and house gowns seems to be perennially in vogue. It must be held in place by a fitted lining underneath in order to hang properly and should really always be long and trailing in order to have a good effect, although it is often seen on short gowns. A very pretty new back is one that is gathered at the neck and waist, and is also held in at the latter place by a broad band, which goes across the back only, being sewed in at the seams which join the side pieces to the back. Dark blue and white challie trimmed with white lace makes neat and pleasing wrappers, which, when lined throughout, are warm enough for autumn and winter wear.

MORNING JACKET.

Very narrow ribbon and very narrow velvet in black and colors are popular trimmings and are to be very much worn. They are especially suitable for children's gowns.

The illustration given today shows a morning jacket of old rose cashmere. It is of a blouse shape, gathered in at the waist by a belt of old rose ribbon, which is tied in front with long bows and ends and forming a full basque. Around the shoulders is a sort of draped pelerine of cashmere, bordered with a ruffle of white lace. Lace is carried around the neck and forms a double jabot down the front. The sleeves are of half length and are puffed at the bottom and finished with a frill of lace.

While she directs affairs.
—Cleveland Leader.

Easily Explained.

"Do you mean to tell me that you have found a large number of men who are willing to put all they possess into a common stock and share alike?"

"Certainly," replied the socialist. "Why not? There isn't one of them who has a cent to his name."—Washington Star.

Would Be an Improvement.

Penelope—Why don't you learn to ride a wheel?

Miss Antique—I'm afraid of getting a bicycle face.

Penelope—But that is the very reason I suggest it.—Yellow Book.

Reached the Limit.

"I see there's going to be another secret society organized."

"Well, it won't make any difference to me. My husband belongs to six already, and secret societies don't meet Sunday night."—Chicago Tribune.

He Whistles at Danger.

Ziggsby—There goes a fellow who whistles at danger.

Perksby—Ah, he must be a very brave fellow! Who is he?

Ziggsby—A locomotive engineer.—N. Y. Journal.

Insult to Injury.

"I told her there were plenty other fish in the sea when she refused to marry me."

"What did she say?"

"That they won't all bite at clam bait."—Philadelphia North American.

Tragedy of a False Step.

Grump—One false step in life may lead to irreparable disaster.

Spooner—I know that well. I loved a girl who thought me a hero until I fell down a coal hole when lifting my hat to her.—Tit-Bits.

Hints for the Household.

"Mamma, why do recipes always say to keep jellies and preserves in dark places?"

"So that little boys like you will be afraid to go where they are."—Chicago Record.

Returning from the Picnic.

Ethel—There is Jack sitting on the other side of the boat. Doesn't he look tired?

Maud—Yes. Have you been talking to him to-day?—Harlem Life.

A Quick Acknowledgment.

Twynn—I made Whiffet acknowledge the corn yesterday.

Triplett—How?

Twynn—I trod on it.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many years standing may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is a great pile cure. C. D. Stevens.

This Date In History—Sept. 5.

1548—Catherine Parr (Seymour), sixth wife and widow of Henry VIII, died.

1638—Louis IV of France was born at St. Germain; king 72 years; died 1715.

1750—Robert Ferguson, Scottish poet, born at Edinburgh.

1851—Dr. William McGilliway, distinguished Scotch naturalist, died at Aberdeen.

1857—Auguste Comte, French metaphysician and philosopher, founder of the positivist school, died.

1892—Daniel Dougherty, famous orator, lawyer and Democrat, died in Philadelphia; born 1826.

1894—General George Stoneman, ex-governor of California and at one time chief of the cavalry corps of the Army of the Potomac, died at Buffalo; born 1822.

1895—Peter Styers, a locomotive engineer who had been on the rail 46 years, died at Bethlehem, Pa.; born 1823.

Small precautions often prevent great mischiefs. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very small pills in size, but are most effective in preventing the most serious forms of liver and stomach trouble. They cure constipation and headache and regulate the bowels. C. D. Stevens.

His Retort.

For one whole day not a cross word had been heard, and naturally both were in good humor.

"Why should we not go on like this forever?" she asked, at length. "Why can't we always agree?"

"Because," he explained, very earnestly, "once in a great while I like to have my own way."

Shortly thereafter he had slammed the door and started for the club, and she was excitedly asking herself why she had ever been foolish enough to marry.—Chicago Post.

Not Necessary.

"I have just had a note from Willie's teacher," said Mrs. Parvenue, "and she says that he is very deficient in spelling."

"What in thunder is he studying spelling for?" demanded Mr. Parvenue, angrily. "Does his teacher mean to insinuate that he won't be rich enough to hire a typewriter?"—Chicago Post.

The bicyclist's Best Friend" is a familiar name for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, always ready for emergencies. While a specific for piles, it also instantly relieves and cures cuts, bruises, salt rheum, eczema and all affections of the skin. It never fails. C. D. Stevens.

Go West, Young Woman!

There are thousands of acres of government land yet unclaimed. Self supporting women have here an opportunity to obtain land and homes in the west. The discomforts and loneliness incident to pioneering are the greatest drawbacks, but they are materially lessened when friends go in colonies. The length of residence on a homestead is to a certain degree optional with the "filer." The filing fee, including all expense, is $18. At the end of five years one may make final proof on the land, but the homesteader is not compelled to make proof until the end of seven. Where a claimant temporarily leaves her land for the purpose of earning an honest livelihood, coupled with bona fide intention of complying with the law, such absence is accounted a constructive residence.—New York Tribune.

When We Demoralize the Strength

By excesses or imprudence in eating, we cannot hope to escape the consequences for any great length of time. The most robust digestion must succumb to abuse of that important function. But supposing that we have been foolish enough to enfeeble the stomach, is the damage irreparable? By no means. The dyspeptic has only to do two things to insure his ultimate recovery. First, he should adopt an easily digestible diet. Second, he should use with regularity and persistence, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the leading gastric invigorant of the age. The multiform symptoms of dysyepsia, and the almost invariable attendant disorders, biliousness and constipation, will assuredly cease to persecute the sufferer if the above advise is attended to. Who that has suffered the torments that chronic indigestion inflicts will neglect to take advantage of a remedy which, if the most positive evidence of the medical profession, and the public is to be received with due credence, is an absolute specific for the complaint.

New Deal In Fruit--

During the balance of the season we will retail all Fruit at wholesale prices. This decision on our part will mean a great saving to purchasers and is an announcement that is perfectly reliable. We intend making a leader of our Fruit to draw trade. We don't expect to make any money on it, and, as we said before, simply handle it as a trade bringer. Quality, of course, is the one thing to be most considered. Our Fruits have always been the best and all Fruit carried by us in the future will be up to standard all around. Prices quoted will be only on the best quality. All our Fruit is bought through a broker on South Water Street, Chicago, who has done our buying for the past thirteen years. We receive large shipments every day. He is a good Fruit buyer as our goods have always proven. Our prices will be considerably lower on the same class of goods than you can buy elsewhere
